MONDAY, JANUARY 6

“We should understand that when God says He is present, He is saying that He is doing something. He is never a passive bystander...He gives us what we need when we need it...He promises to give us the manna that we need...(but) He won’t give us so much that we will have enough for tomorrow because then we should just start trusting in the manna rather than trusting Immanuel.”

- Ed Welch

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8

“The trials in our lives exist not because he has forgotten us, but because he remembers us and is changing us by his grace. When you remember that, you can have joy in the middle of what is uncomfortable.”

- Paul David Tripp

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15

"When we find ourselves in the place where the Lord wants us, we can often look back and see that the circuitous path it took us to get there was actually perfectly straight, that what seemed like twists and turns at the time were necessary steps along the road. When we feel as if we are wandering, we must remember that if we are trusting in God, He is actually guiding us on His straight path."
